Dee Johnson

Dee
Happy birthday love. Thanks loads for helping me become emotionally stable (ha!)
Have a real sweet kid and I'm sure you will have no problems in life. Hope do though.
Love our welcome to my shoulder to cry on
Good luck
Bill Story

Anne Duggan '64

I hope in all my experiences to meet someone better than you. For then I will have found the perfect human being. One who pursues her goals until accomplished regardless of time spent.

Bob Pizzes

Anne: Good luck in England. I hate to see you leave, you've been a real friend. Good luck in future years at High School. Make them your best. Write!

Love Ya,
Sharon.

Anne: Never forget the fun (?) we had in French this year.
Good Luck in '63
Love,
Katie

To Ann -
Thanks for keeping me on hey in Choral Club. Remember Mr. Jones, Miss Bovey, and most of all me (Connie) I'll remember you!
Love, Barb
Pepper Ann

Lots of luck always
U a real sweet girl.
Love, Jane

Ann—
Been doing well in English? Well, you'll need it in England!! Be a good girl (good will ambassador!!) Will all miss you very much!! Good luck and Much Happiness forever.

Bye-bye!! Diana Lundquist

Ann-
Bonne chance en Angleterre! Tu vas bientôt! Tu vas voir! Tout le monde t'aime ici. Bonne chance!
Love Susi Hogan

Dear Ann—
We've had a nice visit in English and miss you next year. Have fun in England.

Anne:
It's been enjoyable knowing you this year in Chorus. Best of luck in English. Have fun — in England and don't forget "Dear Old Rich".
Good Luck.
Peggy Shaw

My deepest regret is someone who has always been sweet and quiet in Miss Bovio's class. Good luck! you deserve it.
Barb Foltz

Anne —
It's been great knowing you this year. Have a fun summer, and good luck always.

Dear Anne,
Good luck
this summer &
I hope we have classes together
next year.

Dear anne,
Trying to think of something to say is always so hard for me. Especially to say the things I feel in my heart. Surely there isn't enough
words in the world
to express the way
I feel about you!
So I'll just say
Lots of Luck
Love xxxxxx
Kathy B.

Dear Anne,
Just think, at this time next year you'll be in England and then will call come and see you. I wish you the best of luck which I know you will have - Write me often and remember

Bonnie

P.S. You can live with me instead of going to England if you want!

Anne, It's been a pleasure knowing you this year. Stay sweet and remember P.E. love, Linda Bye

Dedication

"America,
Cast you the real reckoning for your present?
The lights and shadows of your future . . .?
To girlhood, boyhood look, the teacher and the school."

Walt Whitman

A class studying at Rich receives the tools and values of the past and present which it will inevitably be called upon to adapt and apply to the future. For the Class of '62, that moment is at hand. Characterized by scholarship and effort, this group of young men and women, joined by thousands of others like it, must ultimately make the climactic decisions paving the way for a Twenty-first Century. To the four hundred graduates of Rich today, the "lights and shadows" of the world tomorrow, in recognition of their grave responsibility, the editors of the 1962 Lagoon dedicate this book.

This Is Rich East

Dear Anne,

The last few weeks we have gotten so much closer. You've been my consoler! Why do you have to move to England? However, I promise to come see you — and Mary Jane ~~Lane~~ Kane!

My, what an interesting movie that will be I can't see in here. Quit twisting my arm. (If you deserved having something good said about you I'll say it.) But I can't think of anything.....

The next time you decide to lay a bananna or two please don't do it in my car! People looked at us sort of oddly on the way home. I can't imagine why!!!

Love,
Ginny

It's been a lot of fun knowing you this year although we didn't have the best environment to get acquainted in - (French)
See you next

Class of 1962

anne—
To a real sweet girl. Be good + have fun at Roundup this summer. We sure had fun last summer at camp. Lots of luck in England!
Love,
Pris

"Oh, good—no more sore backs!!" The senior year brings the opportunity of sitting on chairs during assemblies. However, the view is often not as good as from the bleachers. Some seniors, now plagued by a sore neck, may wonder whether this is really a privilege or just a distinction.

Anne (or should I say Kathleen McGee),
Have fun, this summer & see you next year.
Love,
Roselie Turkel

"This is the one who asked me to the Spinster Spree."

"Remember When . . ."

March 3, 1962

From mustaccoli to carrot jello, from the twist to "Three Jolly Coachmen," the last party of the class of '62 was filled with contrasts, surprises, and reminiscense, spurred on by decorations and entertainment highlighting the past four years at Rich: . . . a billowing, speckled parachute, in storage since the prom . . . Baby Rockets fighting through a season of unscored-upon games . . . a sophomore coatcheck revisited, complete with mysteriously disappearing hat . . . hey, freshie, bought your elevator pass? . . . creating a senior honor roll of Gargantuan size . . . "Vanquish the Vikings!" . . . class officers scooping out mounds of ice cream hidden in Hershey-brown sauce . . . parading in a thirteen bus caravan to Joliet . . . ordering graduation announcements for relatives who still don't believe it . . .

These memories pervaded most whispered conversations while thoughts of successes and failures, friendships and the future ran through every graduate's mind.

Potluck organizer, Debby Trout, beams over dinner's success.

"Did you see what I just ate?"

Another satisfied customer leaves the sophomore class coat check—but where is his hat?

Music popular in the past fills the air for dancing couples.

"Hey, punk, bought your elevator pass?"

"Sue, I . . . uh . . . was wondering . . . er . . . if you would . . . duh . . . go to the Prom w-w-with me . . .?"

The Class of 1962 Presents "Paradise Lost"

Kathleen Pizzimenti

Queen Kathleen and date, Gregg Nelson.

PROM COURT AND ESCORTS: Jack Boston, Andrea Viator, Shelly Stromquist, Zaida McCall, Gregg Nelson, Kathleen Pizzimenti, Bill Brougham, Sara May, Carolin Kern, Denny Denman.

. . . the crowning touch

Remember . .?

Shadowy silhouettes of underground columns on a sprinkling fountain—soft music in the air—dancers in a fairyland cavern—a blue, glistening waterfall—such was the night in "Paradise Lost."

They drifted in two by two; cavern imps served prom-goers punch and cake.

After flowers have been pressed and bids have been pasted in scrapbooks, the memories of an evening in paradise will linger on.

. . . we want to see the Queen.

. . . dancers in an underground cavern

Hop aboard the train.

The wild Itralian has arrived!

Ah——togetherness.

Queen Zaida McCall.

Homecoming

Zaida McCall reigned over an exceptionally fine Homecoming. According to young but vigorous Rich East tradition there were Bermuda and Dress Your Best Days. New this year were Surprise Day, Class Distinction Day, and Decorate Your Hall Day. Rich beat Bremen 31 to 0, just four points short of the prediction at the Homecoming Assembly.

Later the west gymnasium was decorated like a football field for the dance. Bright green and gold goal posts faced shaggy red and grey ones. One set of cartooned bleachers was full of happy Rich fans; the other held a few sad Bremen people. There were even paper yard lines which were soon torn by the feet of carefree, victorious Richites celebrating to the music of Doug Kincaid's Sophisticates.

"Give them a growl, boys."

Congratulations, Zaida!

Smiles from three members of the court

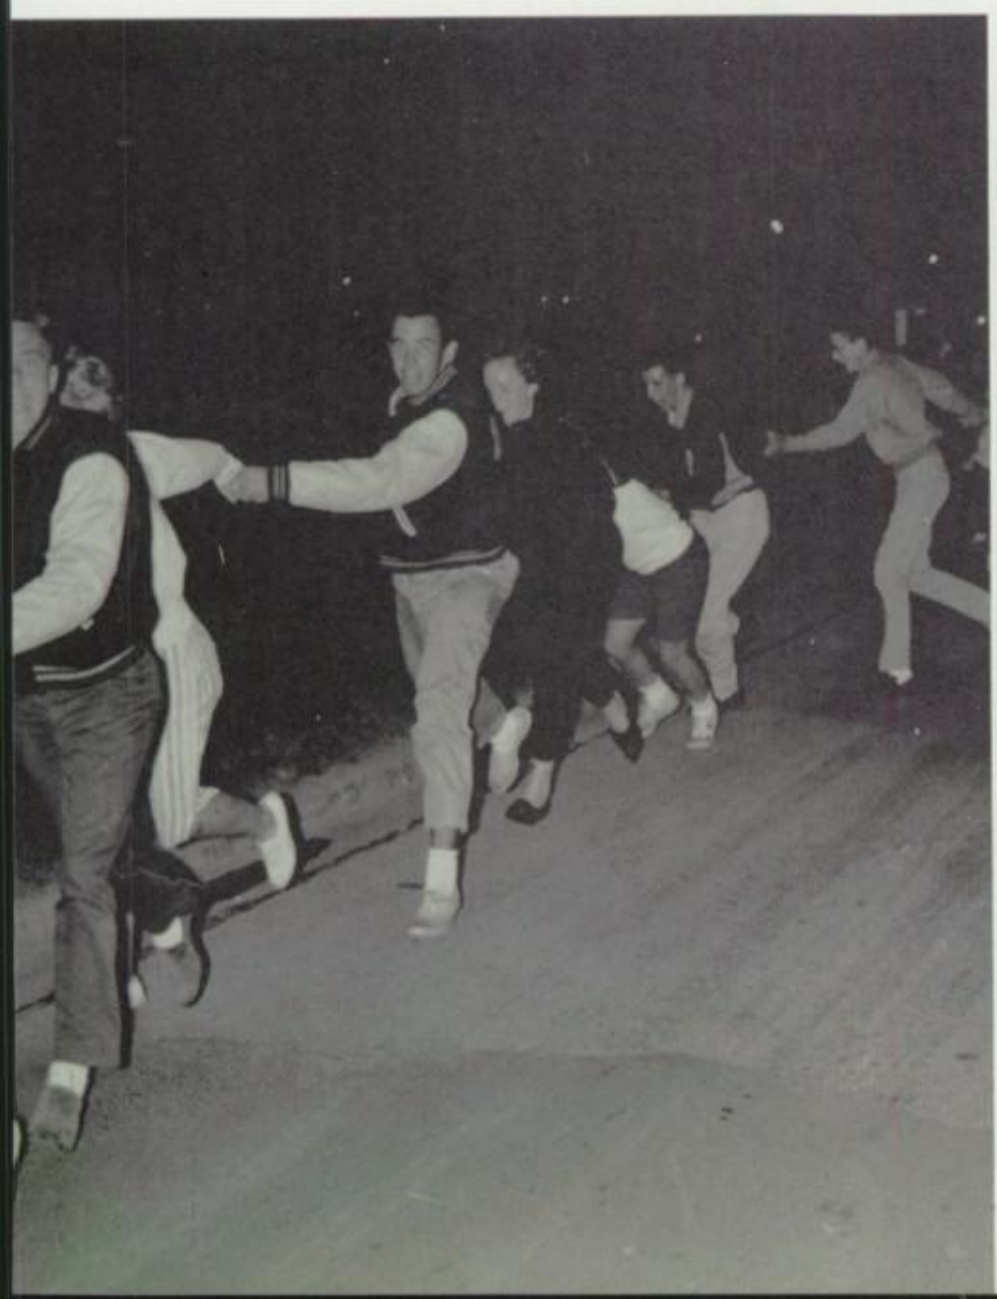
Junior Town, U.S.A.

. . . the court dance

Slowly, slowly—down falls Bremen.

"This snake dance beats Vic Tanny's anyday."



Queen Zaida sparks activities with the lighting of the traditional bonfire.

"Me? Do I look like a cheat?"

"Come on, let's have a little feeling."

"It's sinful, but it's awfully thrilling."

"Liliom, I've always treated you right, haven't I?"

Liliom

The annual fall production, "Liliom" was a milestone in Rich High productions. For the first time, a play was staged "in the round." The play, which concerned the love between a servant girl and a shiftless carousel barker, was ideally suited for this experiment. The play, the lighting, the staging all combined to make an enjoyable experience for all involved. Director of the production was Barry Kautz.

Christmas Formal

As couples danced to the music of the Millionaires, Santa and his elves watched over the winter formal. Mistletoe hanging from the ceiling tempted many a girl's date. Candles, candy canes, and Christmas trees added to the festive atmosphere, while "Holly Daze" highlighted a delightful season.

Several Juniors serve refreshments to nearby dancers.

Spinsters' Spree

Lewis Carroll's fanciful world of inquisitive caterpillars, ever-smiling Cheshires, and slythy toves, gimbling in the wabe flashed for an evening before the eyes of Rich East students, not during a prolonged fall into a rabbit hole, but through the creative imagry of the annual Spinsters' Spree. Presented by the Girls' Athletic Association, the "King of Hearts" turn-about mixed large playing cards and red-painted roses to mold a dance straight from the pages of Alice in Wonderland.

Down in the Valley

An almost bare stage provided the backdrop. The uncluttered stage added to the music's dramatic effect. Through a series of flashbacks, the circumstances surrounding the murder were revealed to the audience. Brack Weaver, condemned to die for the killing of Thomas Bouche, escapes from jail to see Jenny Parsons again before his death. Song of Democracy, by Howard Hanson, was also presented. It is based on two poems by Walt Whitman.

The Sandbox

In the tradition of Rich high teams, the Rich high Forensic squad brought a triple crown conference championship to the school. The team not only swept the conference in both varsity and sub-varsity individual events, but went on to take first in drama, competing against two other presentations of the same play. The contest play, "The Sandbox" by Edward Albee, is an example of modern drama. Although only fifteen minutes long, the play carries a dramatic denunciation of our present day society. Criticizing both the modern generations' attitude toward old age, and everyone's attitude toward death, this deeply symbolic play was well received by the judges.

"It's very hard to be sad, Daddy. She looks so happy."

"... when I became a man"

Saint Paul had the right idea when he wrote these memorable words in his letter to the Corinthians. He knew then what we are just beginning to discover: that physical maturity is almost automatically attained, but psychological maturity must be learned.

Our century is noted for adult leaders who did childish things to the detriment of the whole world. Have you learned to see this in their lives, and patterned yours to avoid this error?

Your health and your happiness depend on how much of such maturity you develop. Look over the great progress you have made in these four years. Be able to admit that you have now grown up! Say kindly but firmly with Saint Paul, "... when I became a man, I gave up childish ways."

A yearbook is something to be treasured for it becomes more meaningful and important as time goes by. Today you will look at the pictures and quickly scan its contents. Tomorrow you will slowly study each page thinking of those with whom you once spent many happy days.

I hope that this has been a profitable and meaningful year for each of you. We will follow your progress with interest and pride.

GREGORY H. SLOAN
Director of General Services

In new offices this year, the General Services Department again played an important part in organization here at Rich. Acting as a recruiting agency for new teachers and non-certified workers, it also handled employee housing arrangements and conducted a salary study. In addition, the department was our public relations outlet, maintaining contact with accrediting agencies and thus establishing local, state, and national recognition of our fine high school.

Under the supervision of Jean McGrew, the English department began an extensive examination of its curriculum in order to improve the quality and continuity of its four year program. The honors courses were continued, giving upperclassmen an accelerated and more comprehensive study of American and English literature.

Expansion was definitely noticeable in the drama and library departments: theater-in-the-round made its first appearance and Mr. Hayes initiated the new policy of opening the library two nights a week.

The vitality of this year's English program can be attributed, in part, to the addition of eleven new teachers to the department.

Fine and Applied Arts

Curriculum expansion in the Fine and Applied Arts Division included courses in electronics, notehand, and a survey course in fine arts. Especially active this year was the music department, developing a men's glee club, a full orchestra, and a stage band.

Pre-school children enjoyed a playschool sponsored by the home economics department, while the whole school was benefited by a display of outstanding arts and crafts projects. Throughout the year, effort was made to integrate the activities of the division's various departments.

The Rich Rockets again rumbled and blasted to the varsity conference football title. The title win included five straight shut-out victories. This record is attributed to the great teamwork of the Rocket's defensive squad, the "Green Monsters."

The task of calling signals for the team was shared by Bill Bellnap and Monty Hughes. Hughes, noted for his passing ability, completed a total of 346 yards in the air, while Bellnap and Brown functioned as unbeatable ground gainers.

The men that qualify for the All-Conference team are chosen with reference to the sum of each man's ability throughout the entire season.

Of the twenty-two available positions in All-Conference, Rich East placed ten. Of these, Bruce Craddock and Bill Farrell placed offense and defense.

The final season record was seven wins, no losses, and one tie.

The frosh-soph team had the most successful season in Rich's history. With a record of 9 wins and 4 losses, the Rockets ran well all year climaxing with a victory in the conference meet. Next year's varsity players will profit from frosh-soph experiences.

The Varsity Cross Country squad had a successful season this year, compiling a record of 8 wins and 5 losses in dual meet competition. The thinclad's main strength was their ability to group runners, thus, while a Rocket might not take first place a team victory would be scored. Outstanding performances were seen from seniors Jim Trout and Jim Patterson and juniors Bob McMichael and Ken Ryder.

REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

Rich	56	Joliet	57

A long absence of basketball prestige and prowess returned to Rich East this winter. Utilizing all the talents of his cagers, head coach Chuck Sedgwick and assistant coach Sherm Hafner thrilled capacity crowds at one game after another. For the first time in Rich basketball history the varsity Rockets defeated both Bloom and Thornton during regular season play. Depending on hustle and speed, the Rockets compiled the most impressive record since 1955; 17 wins and 7 losses.

The team bowed out of state competition only after exhibiting the tremendous determination that was characteristic of the whole year's effort.

Wrestling

VARSITY

The Rocket matmen had the best season in their history during the 1961-62 campaign. Coach George Egofske directed the Varsity wrestlers to an impressive 10 win and 4 lost dual meet record, an unprecedented victory in their own regional, and the qualification of eight men for the sectional tournament. Three Rockets remained victorious through the sectional tournament and advanced to the state competition at Arlington Heights. The end of this two day event again found the Rockets reaching new heights with the 5th place finish of heavyweight Harlan Dodge and Rich's first state championship by Marty Lyman in the 145 pound weight class.

VARSITY

Despite a poor showing in the win column, the 1961 edition of the Rocket Thinclads, under the mentorship of Coach Rodney Hansen, showed signs of developing into a Conference contender next year. This year's Running Rockets might more appropriately have been named the "Throwing Rockets," for only in the weight events were there continual victories. However, running strength may be expected from sprinter Denny Denman and we can hope for a fine distance team under Coach Egofske.

The Rich "Diamondmen" went all the way to capture the Southwest Suburban Conference crown in 1961. The impressive 14-3 record was climaxed during the District play-offs when Rich lost to Crete-Monee by a score of 5-4.

Powered by the team's most valuable player, Jim Russell, the Rockets' batting record was one to be envied.

Fielding and pitching, in keeping with Rich tradition, were best in the Conference. Highlighting the pitching performance was Kemper Baker's no-hitter against rival Lincolnway and a fine record of 7 and 1 by Gill Hopper.

The "R" Men's Club helps build homecoming spirit through their annual bonfire.

The "R" men's club, under the leadership of Jim Howard, Bill Bellnap, Jim Hawthorne, and Denny Denman, contributed greatly to the school through their service projects this year. The club, open to all boys who have earned a varsity letter in athletic competition, sold programs during the football season, and ushered at sports events and school activities.

Girls' and Boys' State

Selected annually by the local chapters of the American Legion, Girls' and Boys' State attendees participated in a summer session of practical democracy. Meeting with other winners at a downstate university, the local representatives aided in the establishment of a mock state government. The past year's session came to a climax when student-elected officials assumed, for a day, the actual state responsibility corresponding to their respective offices.

Lagoon

Rick Vogenthaler,
Editor-in-chief

Picture schedules, write-ups, captions, drawings, idents and deadlines, confusion and drudgery are enough to drive any sane individual mad. But they all have their consolation as the yellow dummy sheets begin to pile up and more and more pages go off to the printer as part of a unified book. At first it doesn't seem that the layouts will ever be anything but lines on paper; but at last the disorganization manages to drop aside to make room for the '62 Lagoon.

Striving to make each new Reveiller different from and superior to any previous issue, the newspaper staff was ready to meet and surmount any crisis that arose. A liberal attitude towards form and tradition created problems, yet achieved progress and improvement in each copy of the paper. This flexible approach also made the All-American Reveiller exciting, not only to read, but also to publish.

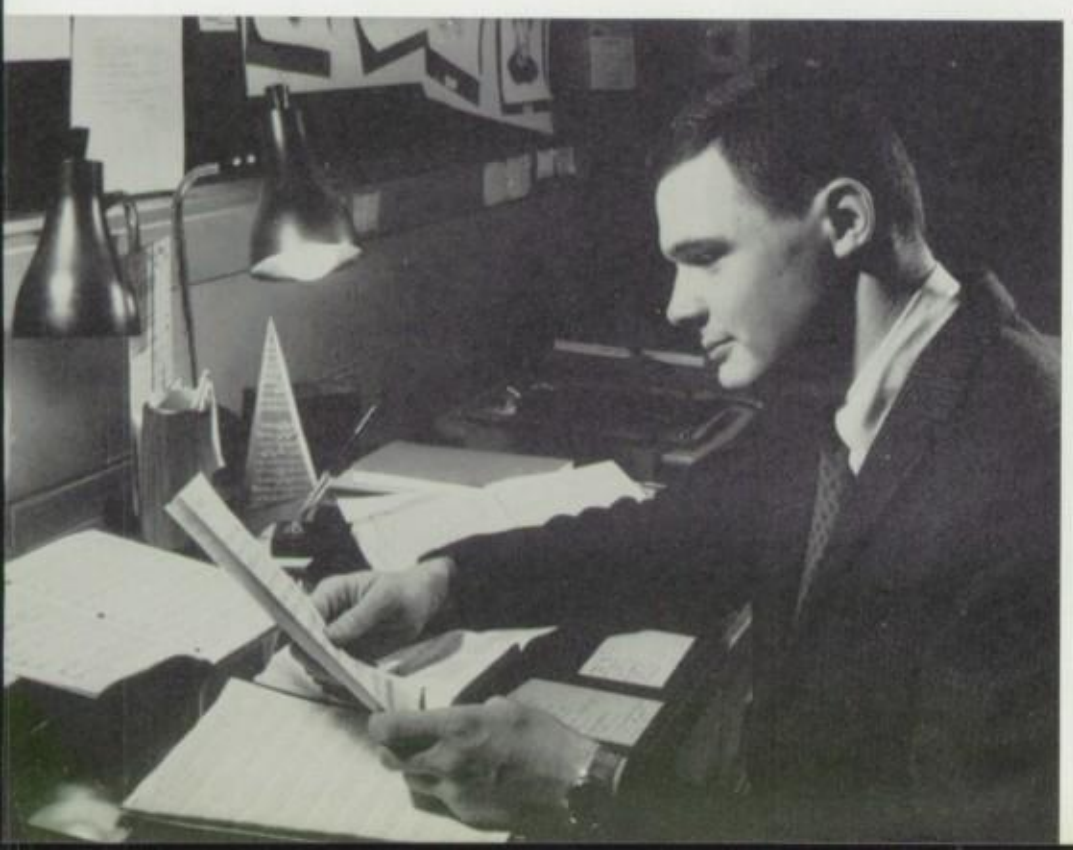
Girls' Chorus



Girls' Chorus is one of the first in a series of vocal music organizations open to Rich students. Scheduled as a noon hour elective, the group is traditionally composed of freshman girls who are training for more advanced work in the department. The chorus's musical selections include varied compositions ranging from Bach to Lerner and Lowe.

Cadet band serves those students interested in instrumental music, yet not well enough acquainted with the field to participate in a full orchestra. Besides giving its members a chance to practice their instruments individually, the band offers an understanding of music as a cooperative venture.

Providing an opportunity for Rich's most advanced student musicians to perform classical and semi-classical compositions in a professional manner, orchestra sessions met daily in a non credit practice hour. Their programs were highlighted by appearances with members of the Park Forest and Chicago Heights symphonies.

A.F.S. Students

Rich again participated in the American Field Service program and sent Barbara Potter as our representative to Montevideo, Uruguay, for the summer. Our visiting foreign exchange was student, Erica Cox, from Christchurch, New Zealand. The purpose of the program is to create a closer understanding between the United States and foreign countries.

A.F.S. Club

Through the efforts of the American Field Service, a foreign exchange student was again brought to Rich. A.F.S. is devoted to raising money in order to bring foreign students to Rich and sent Richites to foreign countries. During the past year, A.F.S. was co-sponsor of the apple sale and sponsor of Bermuda day.

WRHS

Reproducing authentic working conditions for those interested in the mass communications media, radio station WRHS, 88.1 megacycles on the FM band, entered its second year of operation. Initiated through student-raised finances, managed by a student directorate, operated by student technicians, and staffed by student announcers, WRHS expanded its services this year through a second broadcast night each week. Through entertainment features such as musical shows and sports coverage, and presentation of public service messages, local news coverage, and topical interviews, WRHS became an integral part of community life.

FM Board

The FM Board, directed by Mr. Borich, is a group of students who evaluate scripts and assign program slots for the radio station WRHS. They review programs already on the air and handle correspondence for WRHS.

Electronics Club

At their meetings, members of the Electronics Club discuss the modern developments in electronics. They receive lectures about electronics, and at times even conduct classes. Their main function, however, is to maintain Rich's radio station, WRHS.

Camera Club

Believing that photography can be useful not only as an avocation, but as a vocation as well, Camera club this year mixed the practical with the interesting. Special lectures on lighting affects and the newest photographic equipment were scheduled along with actual demonstrations in dark room techniques. By catering to a small group of interested individuals, the club was able to deal with highly technical and specialized areas of coverage in a comprehensive manner.

Anne -
What can I say that hasn't been said already. I have the deepest regards + sorrows for you. You were a good friend + a true friend. I hope you have everything good in life you deserve always. Best of luck to you and yours.

Anne,

Remember, England's on our side! Please leave it in one piece. Maybe you can find a Scout troop crazy as us, somewhere.

Anne,

You're a wonderful girl and I've really enjoyed knowing you. I hope you will always have the best of everything throughout life, and meet with success in everything you do. Good luck at Round-up and in England.

Love

Anne,

It's been nice having you in my Geometry & French class. Especially in French. Lots of luck in England, and lots of fun and happy memories to a real sweet girl

Dear Lee
I have known for a long time and even more than I've expressed, what a wonderful friendship we've had. Sue Jane

Lee -
I guess you put Lo with all the farmers like you - now a days
it's lots of luck to the future -
Kathi Fiske -62

June, 1962

Dear Lee —

There's so much
I could say, but you know, when you look back at me, you won't need a few lines in a year book - probably remember our good times - and our friendship is worth more than any words. Lie always think of you as always you as a true friend - seem to understand - So, don't worry about these words - because somehow - somewhere - Lie be there - here or in spirit, to remind you of our friendship —
Love Always — your Losie
